No, every entry must be composed of video footage, graphics, and content that was created durring the weekend competition from Friday at 7:00 pm to Sunday at 7:00 pm.

If you have a stock bumper for your production company that features your team name and logo that may be generated in advance along with the music that pertains to the bumper.